THE 39TH SAN FRANCISCO JEWISH FILM FESTIVAL TO CLOSE WITH “THE RED SEA DIVING RESORT” WITH DIRECTOR GIDEON RAFF IN PERSON

SAN FRANCISCO - The Jewish Film Institute (JFI) announces the 39th San Francisco Jewish Film Festival (SFJFF) will close with The Red Sea Diving Resort on Sunday, July 28, 7:15pm at the Castro Theatre in San Francisco, with director Gideon Raff in person.

Inspired by one of the most remarkable true life rescue missions ever, The Red Sea Diving Resort is the incredible story of a group of international agents and brave Ethiopians who in the early 80s used a deserted holiday retreat in Sudan as a front to smuggle thousands of refugees to Israel. Chris Evans plays Ari Kidron, the Mossad agent who leads the mission together with courageous local Kabede Bimro, played by Michael Kenneth Williams. Posed as naive European entrepreneurs, the team he leads take advantage of the Sudanese government’s interest in expanding its feeble Ministry of Tourism to purchase a strategically located property along the Red Sea. Their plans are thrown for a loop, however, when real tourists begin arriving, expecting service.

Director Gideon Raff—creator of the acclaimed Israeli series Prisoners of War and an executive producer of its American adaptation Homeland —brings his signature pacing to the pulse-elevating scenes of intrigue, finding opportunities along the way to fill the mise-en-scene (from Mossad office headquarters to the kitschy scuba hotel) with sly references to the culture, politics, and distinctive aesthetics of its late ‘70s-early ‘80s setting. Finding more humor and adventure in the story than one would imagine possible given the high stakes of the drama, what resonates most strongly throughout The Red Sea Diving Resort is an indistinguishable pride in the sense of fraternity (the name of the Mossad’s original mission was “Operation Brothers”) between the Israeli and Ethiopian Jews, and the resourcefulness and bravery that bonds them together. The prestigious cast also includes Haley Bennett, Alessandro Nivola, Michiel Huisman, Chris Chalk, Greg Kinnear and Ben Kingsley.

The Closing Night screening is followed by a reception in the Castro Theatre Mezzanine, with food and drink provided by La Méditerranée. Tickets are $22 members, $25 general public.
